Fundraising reaches new peak

Fun 4 All

Registered Charity 1152293

Chippenham-based charity Fun4All, which aims to give Wiltshire Carers and those they Care For a break, are thrilled with the result of a recent fundraising activity by the Baldwin family of Masons Way, Corsham.

Lee and Alison Baldwin and their 17-y-o twin sons Nathan and Charlie climbed Ben Nevis in a day, a 9-hour trek. Between them the family have raised £700 for Fun4All, money which will enable the charity to provide even more breaks for those Carers whose lives are put on hold.

Alison said “The pain in my legs is worth it if it gives Carers some respite from their 24/7 Caring role.” The family had special T-shirts printed and stated that many other walkers asked about the charity and thought that it was a wonderful idea and so worthwhile.

Not content with what they have achieved this year the family are now planning to do a sponsored Sky Dive in 2015 to raise further funds.
